Public use of the display space is limited to not-for-profit, non-partisan, non-commercial, or civic groups and to individuals with materials deemed to be connected to the Library's goals. Approval of a display does not constitute Library sponsorship of an organization, endorsement of a particular point of view, or support of the activities promoted by an organization or individual.

12.1 Displays

12.11 Permitted Uses

Organizations which, by purpose and membership are consistent with the Library's mission, goals and objectives may use the display space. 12.13 Reservations

Reservations for displays will be accepted up to 12 months in advance on a first-come first-served basis. In the interest of providing a variety of displays some may be postponed because of recent exhibits of similar nature. Displays may be placed without advance reservation if space is available.

Completed Library Display Reservation requests are public records and will be made available to the public upon written request.

12.16 Responsibility for Materials on Display

The Library will safeguard displays within reason; however, the Library is not liable for damage or theft of materials displayed.

12.17 Focus and Appearance of Displays

Such information should be the focus of the display. Each display must be carefully planned and mounted in an informative, interesting manner with an eye toward attracting Library patrons to read or examine the presented material.
