Book Discussion Group

H Is for Hawk

by Helen Macdonald

Wednesday, October 4, 7:30 p.m.

Upon the death of her father, Macdonald, an experienced falconer, retreated from the world and decided to raise a difficult-to-train goshawk. This is a fascinating nature book, as well as a memoir about grief and solitude, wildness and humanity, class and gender, coping and healing.

Behold the Dreamers

by Imbolo Mbue

Wednesday, November 1, 7:30 p.m.

A family from Cameroon arrives in New York to pursue the American dream, just before the bottom falls out of the economy. This vivid portrayal of an immigrant family follows their fate and that of their wealthy employers as they struggle with the fallout.

News of the World

by Paulette Jiles

Wednesday, December 6, 7:30 p.m.

In post-Civil War Texas, an itinerant news reader is asked to take a 10-year-old German girl, who was kidnapped by Kiowa Indians four years before, back to her only living relatives. The girl is feisty and stubborn, but the old veteran and the girl form a bond over the course of their weeks-long arduous and eventful journey.

Library book clubs are open to anyone who enjoys good books! Extra copies of the books are made available at the Library one month before the discussion. Book reviews and other information can be viewed at the Reference Desk.

Pumpkin Character Craft

Saturday, October 7, 1-2 p.m.

Grades 1-3

Using craft supplies, creativity, and of course... pumpkins, children will create their favorite book character! Parents are welcome to join in the fun. Wear an old shirt just in case your creativity gets on you! We will display the pumpkin characters for one week in the Library, then you can pick them up to display at home for Halloween.

INCREDIBLE BATS

Wednesday, October 11, 4:30-5:15 p.m.

Families Welcome

While Batman is fighting crime in Gotham City, our heroic furry flying friends are fighting to save the rain forests and other eco-systems!

Daniel and Sharon Peterson, along with their Egyptian Fruit Bats, have been educating people about bats for over 10 years. This live bat show will be focused on these everyday heroes and the important role they play in our world.

Jim Gill

Celebrating Families That Sing, Dance, Play, and Sneeze Together

Monday, November 13, 4:30-5:15 p.m.

Families Welcome

Get ready to sing, clap, dance, and sneeze along with musician and author Jim Gill. His distinctive music play creates the spirit of a family room in the Library and is an invitation to children, parents, and grandparents to sing and play together!

Halloween Storytime and Costume Parade

Friday, October 27, 11:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

FALL STORYTIMES

September 25 - November 17

Toddler Time

Wednesdays, 10-10:30 a.m. or

Thursdays, 10-10:30 a.m. or

Thursdays, 11-11:30 a.m.

2-3.5 years w/adult

Introduce your toddler to early literacy storytimes! Early literacy practices help in building the foundation of reading for your child. This program works best if there is one adult with one toddler.

Storytime Pals

Mondays or Wednesdays, 1-1:30 p.m.

3.5-5 years

Hear stories, sing songs, and have fun with your friends! Storytimes will highlight early literacy skills that children need to learn before they can read. Children attend this storytime without their grown-ups so that they can practice independence.

Read 'n' Rhyme Romp

Mondays or Tuesdays or Fridays

10-10:30 a.m.

3-23 months w/adult

Help your baby grow up to love books! Share stories, songs, and rhymes with your little one in this lapsit program and introduce him or her to a lifetime of reading fun and language enjoyment. This program works best if there is one adult with one baby. The adults are encouraged to follow along and do the activities with their baby.

THE THOMAS FORD LIBRARY FOUNDATION PRESENTS

A Conversation with Carey Cranston

Inaugural President of the American Writers Museum

*Purchase tickets for a $10 donation
at the Library*

Sunday, November 12 at 7 p.m.

ABOUT CAREY CRANSTON

Mr. Cranston took on the role of President of the American Writers Museum in September of 2016. Prior to that, Carey served for 12 years as President of Fox College, Chicago, and was a Vice President at Hill & Knowlton.

The Chicago Tribune rated the AWM the #2 museum worth visiting in the area (July 20, 2017), and Fodor's calls it the #1 new museum to visit in the U.S.

What did it take to create the American Writers Museum and what does it mean for the U.S. and Chicago? President Cranston will give a talk with time for Q&A to discuss the museum's role in Chicago and how its unique mission will work to excite the writers of tomorrow.

Seating will be limited. For information, call Ted Bodewes at 708-246-0520.

ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The American Writers Museum opened on May 16, 2017, after seven years of development and preparation. Through innovative exhibitions and compelling programming, the museum engages the public in celebrating American writers and exploring their influence on our history, identity, culture, and daily lives. The goal is to educate, enrich, provoke, and inspire the public.

The Washington Post calls it "...a visual space, (relying) on zippy interactive displays, a word waterfall art installation, fun play tables with catchy graphics that claim to go inside the "mind of the writer," reading rooms (one for children, another for their elders), and (using) music and film."
