THOMAS FORD LIBRARY FOUNDATION

DONOR SPOTLIGHT

The Sheehan Family

Terry and Kerry Sheehan moved back to Kerry's hometown of Western Springs thirteen years ago to raise their family of four children, Clare, Erin, Michael, and Emmett. The Sheehan children attend St. John of the Cross and St. Ignatius schools as Kerry did, which served Kerry, now a pediatrician, well.

Both Kerry and Terry, a Park Ridge native and digital marketing executive, are avid runners, and Terry has coached all four children for over a decade on the AYSO soccer fields.

The Sheehan family supports the Library because of their core belief that a strong public library system is fundamental for an informed and educated community. They have wonderful memories of attending storytimes, enjoying musicians and magicians, and even playing a mini-golf course inside the Library.

The Thomas Ford Library Foundation thanks the Sheehan family for their generous support! Be sure to check out each family member's favorite books to enjoy the titles for yourself.

Terry's Pick: The Devil in the White City by Erik Larson

Kerry's Pick: The Poisonwood Bible by Barbara Kingsolver

Clare's Pick: The Summer I Turned Pretty by Jenny Han

Erin's Pick: The Inheritance Games by Jennifer Lynn Barnes

Michael's Pick: The Keeper of the Lost Cities by Shannon Messenger
